 - c. District staff and emergency responders may enter closed areas in the course of executing their duties.
 - d. By special permit.
2. District property may be closed or its use limited by the Director of Parks & Recreation or designee to ensure the safety and security of the public and/or district property when fire hazards or other hazards exist.
3. No person shall refuse an order to evacuate any district property in time of an emergency.

ARTICLE VII – EXCLUSIONS

1. A person may be excluded from any district property or facility by a local law enforcement officer, or the Director of Parks & Recreation or designee, subject to Oregon law, for any of the following:
 - a. Violation(s) of district rules and regulations; or
 - b. the person has been cited to appear, arrested or otherwise taken into custody in a "Civil Exclusion Zone" for any of the offenses contained in Deschutes County code; or
 - c. as ordered by a court of law; or
 - d. the person is deemed a public threat to visitors and/or to any district staff or property.
2. The Director of Parks & Recreation or designee shall determine the length of the exclusion period. If an excluded person violates the exclusion order, local law enforcement will be called and the person may be arrested for criminal trespass.

3. The district will provide written notice of the exclusion to the affected person. The exclusion will begin immediately. The excluded person will have ten (10) days from the effective date of the notice to appeal the district's decision. The appeal must be in writing and delivered to the Board of Directors or designee. The appeal shall set forth the reason(s) that the exclusion is invalid or improper, and shall request a written review. The Board of Directors or designee shall render a decision no later than 30 calendar days following receipt of the appeal.
4. If, as part of a written appeal, the excluded person requests a hearing, it shall be conducted by the Board of Directors or designee, within 30 calendar days of the request. The Board of Directors, or designee will render the final decision in writing within 15 business days of the hearing date
5. At any time during the exclusion, an excluded person may petition in writing to the Board of Directors or designee for a temporary waiver of the exclusion.

ARTICLE VIII - ENFORCEMENT OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Director of Parks & Recreation or designee, as well as any peace officer, as defined in Oregon law, are vested with authority to enforce these rules and regulations and:
 - a. Issue a citation as provided by Oregon law to any person who violates any provision of the district's rules and regulations.
 - b. When authorized by law, seize from any persons property that is being used or left in violation of these rules and regulations.
 - c. Refuse entrance to a district facility or program, or to require a person to leave a district property, facility or program.
2. No person shall refuse to leave any district property, facility or program after being directed to leave by a peace officer, the Director of Parks & Recreation, or designee.
3. No person shall interfere with any district personnel enforcing these rules and regulations.
4. The Director of Parks & Recreation or designee shall have the authority to issue special use permits, or to grant exceptions or waivers to any of the terms of this ordinance for authorized events and activities.
5. Pursuant to Oregon law, violation of these regulations is a misdemeanor punishable by exclusion; or upon conviction by a fine or imprisonment, or both.
6. Should any word, sentence, paragraph, clause or phrase of this ordinance be adjudged or held to be void or unconstitutional, the same shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance, which shall remain in full force and effect.
